

Fulfilling Your Vision

School Leadership Retreats

Integrity Coaching invites you to its professional retreat for headteachers. Set in two beautiful countryside locations, as the late summer moves into autumn, headteachers can have space to reconnect with their vision, passion, purpose and prepare for the new academic year.

Central to the Integrity Coaching approach is the integration of personal values with professional purpose. The time and space through the retreat will be entirely focused on giving you maximum opportunity to reflect on your role, context and how these relate to your...

- Motivations
- Hopes
- Possibilities

Retreat Overview

Unlike a training event, this process will involve journaling, discussion and walking with others in the pursuit of uncovering the tools that you will need to flourish in your role.

As a result you will leave the retreat with:

- A clear understanding of how to lead without sacrificing your own well-being.
- A way forward for overcoming the challenges of your role and remaining confident in your ability to achieve your goals for yourself and your school
- An understanding of how to communicate your vision, drive strategic leadership & empower all pupils & staff to flourish.

Facilitators

Viv Grant

Giles Barrow

Tim Small

Benefits

Our time together will be supported through structured activities that will enable you to:

- Clarify the experiences and values that underpin your role as a headteacher
- Identify your areas of strength and how to build upon them to maximise your own personal levels of performance
- Increase your capacity for dealing with change and ambiguities within the role of headteacher

Locations: Bristol and Suffolk

Dates: September 2018 TBC

Cost: £475 + VAT (includes Accommodation + Meals)

Group Size: 6-10